

.....
(Original Signature of Member)

110TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES.

---

Honoring women's health advocate Cynthia Boles Dailard.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Ms. SLAUGHTER submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on _____

---

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Honoring women's health advocate Cynthia Boles Dailard.

Whereas women's health advocate Cynthia Boles Dailard was born on February 29, 1968, and grew up in Syosset, New York;

Whereas Cynthia Dailard excelled as a student both at Harvard University, where she graduated cum laude in English in 1990 and at the University of California at Berkeley's Boalt Hall School of Law in 1994;

Whereas Cynthia Dailard entered the nonprofit sector upon graduating from law school, receiving a year-long fellowship at the National Women's Law Center in Washington, D.C.;

Whereas Cynthia Dailard worked as legislative assistant and counsel for Senator Olympia J. Snowe (R-Maine), where Cynthia Dailard brought to bear her keen intelligence, vision, energy, expertise, and talent in service to her country and the women of America;

Whereas Cynthia Dailard worked as associate director for domestic policy for President William J. Clinton;

Whereas Cynthia Dailard worked for the Guttmacher Institute, a respected public policy think tank devoted to women's health, for eight years;

Whereas Cynthia Dailard was a member of the National Family Planning and Reproductive Health Association Board of Directors;

Whereas Cynthia Dailard spearheaded the Guttmacher Institute's policy work on issues related to domestic family planning programs and sex education;

Whereas Cynthia Dailard spoke and wrote prolifically on matters including family planning, adolescent sexual behavior, and insurance coverage for contraception;

Whereas Cynthia Dailard worked in a bipartisan fashion with elected officials and their staffs to promote the health and well-being of women and their families;

Whereas Cynthia Dailard was a gifted and passionate voice within the women's health community;

Whereas Cynthia Dailard was driven by an abiding concern for human relationships, and the health and well-being of all individuals;

Whereas Cynthia Dailard has left a thoughtful and enduring mark on women's health policy and will remain a role model for advocates by virtue of her wisdom, character, commitment, and scholarship; and

Whereas Cynthia Dailard is survived by her husband Scott and her daughters Miranda and Julia: Now, therefore, be it

1       Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That the Congress—

3           (1) notes with deep sorrow the death of Cynthia
4       Boles Dailard on December 24, 2006;

5           (2) extends its heartfelt sympathy to Scott, Mi-
6       randa, and Julia Dailard; and

7           (3) directs the Clerk of the House of Represent-
8       atives to transmit a copy of this resolution to the 9       family of Cynthia Boles Dailard.